HARLEM RACING

Macy, at one time one of the best handicap horses on the western turf, was defeated by an ordinary selling plater, Ben Chance, yesterday at Harlem and down with Macy went the so-called talent with a sickening thud.

It was in the last race, a selling affair at nine furlongs, where Macy performed and at about 8 to 5 the Schorr's cast off was backed strongly. Mr. Sam Lazarus, a true sportsman, now owns Macy and he bet heavily and also advised all his friends to go with him on the son of Hindoo—Alga. Marty Bergen was up and perhaps the horse's defeat may be charged to his weak finish. The once-famous jockey rode a perfect race up to and until the last twenty yards when he appeared to become rattled and allowed Ben Chance, with midget Jed Waldoup, to beat him out by a nose. Macy was always a dead game horse and as he was a full length in the lead when passing the upper end of the stand many of the spectators took it for granted that he would surely win and made a mad rush for the early returning trains not waiting to cash what they thought were winning tickets on Macy. It is needless to say that there was a disappointed crowd when some of the later ones filed into the trains with the news of Ben Chance's victory. It was a very tight fit between the pair but the crowd made no kick over the prompt decision of the judges.

The regularity with which the favorites are being beaten and the continual winning of long shots has in a measure frightened the speculators and the betting at present, according to the statements of the bookmakers, is lighter than it has been here at any time before during the season.

Just to start things to going properly for the ring Natural Gas, a 20 to 1 shot, took down the long end of the purse in the opening four and a half furlongs maiden two-year-old filly race. This filly was ridden by L. Rose and coming from a long way back with a terrific rush, got up just in time to nose Reina del Celia out. The latter is a speedy filly by Oddfellow and led by four open lengths into the stretch, running the first half in 48½ seconds.

Rosa Diah, backed from 12 to 1 down to 10 to 1, and cleverly ridden by Buchanan, who is a much-needed addition to the riding brigade, won the second event rather handily.

Old O'Connell, he who set the three-quarter record at 1:12½, was a starter in the Rosa Diah race and, from his actions, had possibly been stimulated, which is strictly against turf rules, and who ever administered the dose, if he had been given one, certainly gave the old campaigner enough, for seldom before in his racing career did he act so frisky. He generally warms up stiff and sore, but in this instance he almost ran away with the boy while warming up and also tried to run away with jockey Jones on the way to the post. He managed to get away flying and stepped the first half in 48½ seconds, then tired. After the race Judge Hamilton was red hot and ordered that O'Connell's entry be refused at Harlem in the future. It would be hard to prove to whom O'Connell belongs. On the program he is credited to J. J. Barron & Co., but it is generally understood among horsemen that he is owned by T. Costello, the feed man.

There were but four starters in the steeplechase which presented an interesting, clean contest. Globe II., carrying top weight, 160 pounds, was the favorite and he won handsomely by about two lengths from Passe Partout.

The Unknown, as far as his class is concerned is true to his name, and it took his best effort with only 100 pounds up to beat Mitten and run a mile in 1:41½. Taking this performance as a criterion, the colt is certainly much overrated.

The fifth event furnished the greatest surprise of the day, Hansford, at 30 to 1, "rolling home" two lengths in front of a badly strung out bunch of twelve ordinary selling platers.

John Brennan's chestnut colt, Alfred C., is another horse besides O'Connell which the Harlem judges will refuse the entry of in the future. He is a dangerous animal, and is what is known as a "lugger." It the second race Alfred C., with O'Connor up, threw Dr. Walmsley against the rail, breaking two of the ribs of Robinson's horse and badly wrenching Winkfield's ankle.

P. Dunne was called into the judges' stand yesterday and was questioned regarding the apparent reversal of form in the running of Scales. Mr. Dunne gave about the same reason that he did when Scales ran absolutely last in a race two weeks ago at Hawthorne. Dunne spoke frankly and said: "The only reason to which I can attribute Scales' bad race that day is that he received a kick. The gelding's right foreleg after the race showed an abrasion which was not there previously."

Another new record was made over the steeplechase course, the mark being cut from 3:57½ to 3:34.

Yesterday's attendance equaled that of Tuesday, there being 6,500 spectators present.

Secretary Nathanson issued the program book for next week's races at Harlem yesterday. The list of the nominations to stakes for the September meeting is given in the book.

Harlem's judges have under investigation Dandy Jim's race of Tuesday. It is the intention of Judge Hamilton and his associates to thoroughly investigate all form reversals, no matter upon what track they take place.

In chart 19867 "show" odds against Greenock should read 7 to 10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Lamplighter—Flyaway.
Went to post at 2:15. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving to the limit. The next five were also under keen pressure. Natural Gas ran a game race, and standing a terrific drive all through the last quarter barely got up in time to win. Reina del Celia showed a fine turn of speed, and, considering it was her first appearance, she made a grand showing. Tootsie Green made up a lot of ground in the stretch. Esther Riggs ran a good race. Neither Ellis Glenn nor Eldered was ever prominent. Lady Fortune Teller will improve with racing.

Scratched—19293 Wampago, 106.

Overweights—Ida V., 3 pounds; Eldered, 2.

Natural Gas, place, 4 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Reina del Celia, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Tootsie Green, show, 2 to 1. Ellis Glenn, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Eldered, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Ch. f. by Belvidere—Rose.
Went to post at 2:55. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly at the end after an early drive; second and third were driving and staggering. Rosa Diah was best ridden and came away finely at the end. Emma R. was ridden with poor judgment. Had Knight saved her in the first part of the race instead of chasing after O'Connell he perhaps would have won. Minyon ran one of her good races and was right there all the way. Mark Carl C. for early action. He finished with a tremendous rush after having all kinds of bad racing luck. O'Connell acted like a two-year-old. He ran a fast half, then gave it up. Dr. Walmsley was jammed into the fence by Alfred C. when going down the backstretch and had two of his ribs broken. Duty ran a fair race.

Overweights—Carl C., 3 pounds.

Rosa Diah, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Emma R., place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Minyon, show, 3 to 5. Dr. Walmsley, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—Br. g. by Little Minch—Gwendoline.
Went to post at 3:20. Off at the second break to a good start. Won handily; second driven out. Globe II. is a crackerjack at the jumping game, and under a good ride handled his 160 pounds finely. Passe Partout showed his usual amount of speed, fenced without making a mistake and did his best. Viking also did his best. Last Past showed a lot of speed and improves with every race.

Globe II., place, out. Passe Partout, place, out. Viking, place, evens; show, out. Last Past, place, 3 to 1; show, out.

Went to post at 3:50. Off at the first break to a fair start. Won driving and out to the last ounce. The other three were also driving. The Unknown was the best, but ran a very poor race for him. He was poorly handled and through the stretch Tally was more of a hindrance than a help. Mitten is in good form and ran gamely. Deponan was slipping and sliding about when the barrier ascended. Bill Garrett swerved badly under punishment in the stretch.

Overweights—Deponan, 2 pounds; Bill Garrett, 5.

Winner—B. c. by Hanover—Orlie.
Went to post at 4:20. At post 4 minutes. Start poor. Won well in hand. Hansford ran a surprisingly good race. He was always in a good position and came away without an effort in the stretch. Little Land ran a good game race for him. Leando as usual came with a terrific rush through the stretch and nipped Dandy H. out for third place in the last stride. The latter ran a creditable race. J. J. T. was sent away flying and showed a lot of speed but stopped in a stride at the head of the stretch. It was a very ordinary lot.

Scratched—19101 Irish Jewel, 93; 19629 Frelinghuysen, 96.

Winner—Ch. c. by Chance—Belgae.
Went to post at 4:55. Off at the first break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second the same. Ben Chance is as game as a pebble, and gained inch by inch on Macy all through the final furlong. Macy is only a wreck of his former self, but at that ran a good race. Bergen had him in a good position all the way and rode well until it came to a finish, then he was of little help to Macy. Barton was right there and should win soon when in with the same class of horses. Donation did not run his race. Lew Hopper showed a lot of early speed but quit after running about a mile. Clara Meader retired early. Julius Caesar seemed dangerous on the far turn but stopped in the stretch.

Scratched—19735 Clay Poynter, 111; 19697 Microscope, 97.

Ben Chance, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Macy, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Barton, show, 34 to 1. Donation, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2.

Went to post at 1:35. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. O'Connor won the race for Ringleader. He beat the flag several lengths, but pulled back and allowed Epigram to lead to the stretch. Ringleader then went to the front and well nursed, barely lasted long enough. Boland rode a poor race on Duoeco. Even after a poor send-off he would have won with a good ride. Bastile ran his race and had no mischances. Sir Vere de Vere ran a fair race. Lord Ogleby would have about won with an even break. Off next to last he made up much ground.
